OFFICE No. 112 West Main Street.

(From the Daily, May 8.)

Green peas are making their appearance in the market.

Mrs. Dr. Wroth entertained a number of lady friends at lunch this afternoon.

Samuel W. Dedrick, of Magdalena, one of the cattle inspectors of Socorro county, is at the Armijo.

Emil Hirsch, representing Rothchild Bros., St. Louis wholesale hatters, is among the latest arrivals in the city.

Mrs. John McMillan left last night for Pueblo, where she will remain two months among relatives and friends.

Deputy Sheriff Hubbard was in Santa Fe yesterday, taking with him W. L. Davis, who goes to the penitentiary for a period of three years.

C. H. Woodworth, ex-conductor on the Santa Fe lead, and family, will leave to-night for southern California, where they will reside in the future.

G. G. Gains, a one armed veteran of Las Cruces, registered last night at the Armijo. Mr. Gains was the sergeant at arms of the late territorial council.

J. A. Johnson, owner of Speculation, who was out of the city during the races of last week, got home last night from a business trip to southern Arizona.

This morning J. K. Korber & Co. received two orders from Gallup for delivery wagons. Lesser & Sawyer, general merchants, and Bent & Johnson, butchers.

W. L. Trimble & Co., this morning received from the Studsbaecher Wagon company, of South Bend, Ind., two large transfer wagons, the largest ever brought to the southwest.

Chas. McWilliams, for lighting, was arrested last night by Policeman Van Leuven, and this morning Justice Denham fined him $20 and costs. In default of payment, he was committed to jail for twenty five days.

Felipe Lucero, son of Francisco Lucero and about 17 years old, dropped dead yesterday afternoon at his parents' home at Los Candelaria. Undertaker Strong sent out a coffin and the body was buried there this afternoon.

The smoke stack of the water works fell with a loud crash this morning, completely breaking it to pieces. The high wind just before last loosened and broke one of the joints, and the stack was being lowered for repairs this morning when it fell. Two men barely missed being caught under it.

In our notice yesterday of the organization of the school board, we unintentionally omitted the fact that Dr. Wroth was elected vice president. The organization remains just the same as first effected, and is an organization that well represents the practical business like character of the board.

The steam laundry at the government Indian school was started up yesterday and everything worked nicely. Professor Creager states that the second story of the girls' dormitory has been reached and when the building is completed it will be one of the best and most substantial among the buildings of the school.

Miss L. M. Gilmore, the excellent organist at the Congregational church and music teacher at the Academy, contemplated an early visit to several eastern cities, where she will spend the summer among eastern relatives and friends. The lady has been untiring in her duties and her recreation is therefore well earned.

Yesterday afternoon the contract for the erection of a two story brick and frame residence for Ernest Meyers on north Second street, between Carroll and Marquette avenues, was let to Edward Medler, he being the lowest bidder, at the office of Jesse M. Wheelock. The bids were as follows: Strong & Hessel, $4,200; Mr. McQuade, $4,275; Edward Medler, $3,100.

George Harris, the artistic painter, who was sent to the city jail for a period of ten days, has presented Judge Isherwood with a picture which is superior in pencil drawing and lettering to the one he presented to Justice Isherwood. One side of the picture represents him in jail, serving out his sentence of ten days, and the other shows him walking out in the bright light of freedom.

The CITIZEN the other day announced the death at White Oaks of C. L. Peirman, well known here, and stated, upon authority, that the remains would be brought here for burial in the Fairview cemetery. It is understood that White Oaks has no embalmer, and the body, which was decomposing rapidly, was buried there and that before the arrival of any of the relatives of the deceased.

Mayor Saint and Alderman Armijo visited the river near Alameda this morning and have returned to the city this afternoon. They report the river having fallen about eight inches since last night and state that the work of building the second dyke is in progress. Contractor Simpson is on the ground overseeing the work. The mayor believes that no further trouble need be feared from the rising of the river.

A. G. Rawlings, of Lamar, Col., who has been here several days, it is understood, contemplates at an early day becoming a permanent citizen of the metropolis. The gentleman is interested in several irrigating schemes at Lamar, and yesterday visited Tijeras canon, to look over the location there for the establishment of a reservoir for the storage of waste water. He was pleased with the visit and believes that with a reservoir at the mouth of Tijeras canon a large area of mesas could be put under cultivation. The gentleman represents considerable Vermont capital, and was induced to make a visit to this city by the inducements presented to him by J. V. John sen.

The following parties have taken out retail liquor licenses, the order being as taken from the license books: Frank E. Sturges, James A. Jackson, J. M. Bryant, Oscar Bachelder, George A. Quigley, Nellie Branson, D. S. Rutherford, W. F. Biedens, O. Oxendine, G. S. Smith, N. J. Sanderson, Henry Lockhart, Hugh Sullivan, Louis Cataño, Joe Barneaux, Schneider & Lutz, Chico Grande, John Fetzer, Wm. Brum, Q. A. Morris, G. E. Naylor, Fred A. Eakin, A. H. Meyers, Luis Maloy, J. C. Johnson, J. E. Hambleton, Liza McGrath, Chico Grande. It was also made application. The next individuals twenty eight and at $400 each, the territorial license, the amount to be advanced to the school fund of the county will foot up the handicap sum of $14,200.

Base Ball Meeting.

The call for a meeting of base ball clubs throughout the country at the A. A. Grand base ball house was well attended, and has opened for the season of 1891 at Albuquerque upon opening up with a dash. The character of the assembly was "play ball."

After informal talk Chas. Yarbo was chosen temporary chairman on motion of Knight. P. J. Gately was chosen temporary secretary, and after an interval of McCreight was made permanent officer without any salary. W. T. McCreight was unanimously chosen by the assembly for manager and permanent chairman.

Deputy Sheriff Hubbard was in Santa Fe yesterday, taking with him W. L. Davis, who goes to the penitentiary for a period of three years.

C. H. Woodworth, ex-conductor on the Santa Fe lead, and family, will leave to-night for southern California, where they will reside in the future.

G. G. Gains, a one armed veteran of Las Cruces, registered last night at the Armijo. Mr. Gains was the sergeant at arms of the late territorial council.

J. A. Johnson, owner of Speculation, who was out of the city during the races of last week, got home last night from a business trip to southern Arizona.

This morning J. K. Korber & Co. received two orders from Gallup for delivery wagons. Lesser & Sawyer, general merchants, and Bent & Johnson, butchers.

W. L. Trimble & Co., this morning received from the Studsbaecher Wagon company, of South Bend, Ind., two large transfer wagons, the largest ever brought to the southwest.

The secretary was also instructed to correspond with Leggett in Kelly, Durango, Silver City, Winslow and Gallup with the object of arranging material games and especially to write Secretary Elliott, of Winslow, that Albuquerque would play Winslow in this city on Sunday, May 13th, and guarantee them transportation for ten men at $2 each and hotel bill for same, provided like favours would be given Albuquerque in event of return game Winslow.

Names were noted to the number of thirty for membership of those in Winslow, and it was moved and carried that an initiation fee of $100 be charged each member for the purpose of defraying incidental expenses. There was considerable discussion as to the name of the association, but the matter was finally laid on the table for further consideration.

Adopted.
